

Randy Hart

Interim Assistant Secretary • DSHS Children's Administration

Meet Interim Assistant Secretary Randy Hart

Randy Hart, who has worked at virtually every level of child welfare in Washington state, was named Interim Assistant Secretary of the Children's Administration effective January 1, 2009.

Randy has been CA's Acting Director of Field Operations since June 2008 and was serving in that position when then Secretary Robin Arnold-Williams appointed him Interim Assistant Secretary. Prior to that he served as Regional Administrator in regions 3 and 6. At Children's Administration he's also served as an Area Administrator, Social Work Supervisor and Child Protection Social Worker.

Randy has worked for Children's Administration since moving to Washington in 1989. He began his social work career as a group home operator and child protection social worker. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-River Falls.

For more information, contact: Robert T. Nelson, Children's Administration Communications Manager, 360-902-0239